1 The secret agent (096)

In the hall of one of the most large hotels at (Orasca) one of the eastern European countries, we meet the secret agent (096) who has an awesome face and not very tall and around of him they were a group of pretty girls who were laughing while drinking wine, he has a few number of male friends, his private note contained the names and numbers of more than 300 female friends, his laptop contained the same number of personal E-mails from his country and nearby countries, he used to make a friendships with females according to his job because of his attractiveness that enables him to get the needed info from the mark character, after that one of them ascended with him to his private room and told him that one of the nearby countries is planning to set up a new system of rockets and using new military planes that could be controlled by satellites, these rockets were able to reach very remote places and could reach define targets in (Orasca) and other countries, it was a real danger, after hours later he descended from his private room in this hotel to get into a very expensive red car driven by a new friend, he knew her through the internet, she was a journalist from another country came to attend an economic forum about economic agreements between the

2 countries, they got down from the car and drank coffee in a general café and spoke about political events, economic and entertainment news and new fashions.

After that the agent (096) left the place and went to reach the new info to the agent (Suzy) who had a nickname known as (The spotted chameleon) because she was the bridge between him and the intelligence service, she was upset a little with the new info, but she was happy to meet (Gerald) our secret agent with the nickname (096) she was always waiting him exactly like the new info, she was loving him, why not?! He was a lady-killer, all the girls were loving him in all the eastern European countries, she was looking at his eyes all the meeting, he was respecting her, but annoying a little with her nervousness and her continuous anger, she was an ideal work partner but not to defeat all the women he knew to win (Gerald's) heart, she was admiring him, but something was incomplete to take away his heart, finally (Suzy) left the place carrying with her the new info leaving (Gerald) to hang around with foreigners and doing his job to get new info through his wide partnerships full with a lot of pretty women.

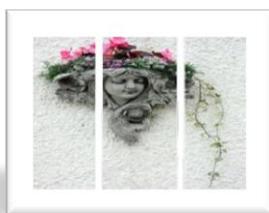

2 The (Wild Rabbit)

In one of the rounds of the agent (Gerald) in one of the major hotels drew attention to one of the beauties of white-colored skin and yellow silk hair, Which was drinking a cup of coffee, try to get closer to her to know her and said to her: Good morning she replied to him: Hi he said to her: It seems you are strange about that town, Would you let me sit down with you? "My name is (Gerald) and I work in the public relations department of a government institution. She said: My name is (Monica) from the neighboring state of (Jeysland). I came to (Oraska) recently for Christmas through a tourist company, and then she called the waiter and asked him what he wanted to eat. He said to her: A cup of coffee just likes you, and after he told her about the tourist landmarks of (Oraska) after they finished drinking coffee, he asked her was to accompany her on a tour of the capital (Salka), she agreed, then he took her outside the hotel and went together to the large museum, which includes wonderful antiques and then to the Opera House and then walked a little in the streets of the capital and (Gerald) booked two tickets to the cinema to attend one of the latest international films and then delivered to the hotel again, after dark and approaching midnight, they agreed to complete their tour the next day. The relationship developed quickly and they used to spend the day together. One night, during their delivery to the hotel, (Gerald) held (Monica) as if he did not want to leave; she didn't want him go too, she asked him to climb with her to her room and exchanged kisses and love together and in the morning was a surprise! (Monica) woke up early, and during her search for (Gerald's) own purposes, she discovered some special papers that showed his nature. At first he was afraid that (Gerald) would spy on her but she thought hard about the times they spent together, and how he was nice to her and how he treated her well all the time so he did not exaggerate in the question about details of her own or the nature of her work, but she had begun to love him and was not tolerated if he wants to rhythm or spy on her, so she decided to tell him everything after he woke up and let it be. When (Gerald) woke up in the morning and said to her, "Good morning, she replied to him: "Good morning, but he noticed a change in the features of her face and wondered what was happening after wonderful evening together and (Monica) immediately asked him: Are you a government agent (Gerald)? And he said to her, "How did you know that?" She said to him, "I have searched for your own purposes." Have you come to spy on me? He told her that he is really a government agent, and that fate and chance alone are what they brought together and that it does not carry any ill or hated, she said to him: I knew you really love me because you did not deny and I told the truth immediately and now I will tell you everything: The nature of my work is very similar to the nature of your work and depends on the collection of information and selling it to the media or private media organizations for those who want to benefit from it or just get it. It depends on the speed of searching the information. Each time I have to precede competitors to cover the truth of the news and tell my own agency to sell it. For the target, I work just like you but with the difference you are spying for government agencies and I spy for private agencies, you hide the news we broadcast them and my nickname: (Wild Rabbit) I'm doing a slow turtle race, but I'm afraid of the bad guys, Have you sworn to me that you will not harm me one day? He replied: I have often dealt with liars and prospects that do not say the truth at all, but today I have found the woman who says frankness does not fear me and I do not fear anything, In fact, I have started to be lovelorn with you (Rabbit) and I will not be able to hurt you She said to him, "You promised not to tell me anywhere, and I, the other, will not reveal anything about you." He said: "He does not hurt the peaceful rabbits and wishes his lover to always precede the turtles." and be at the forefront, has kidnapped his heart from him and will not regain it again only at the finish line.

3 Minister of Housing

In one of (Gerald's) meetings with (Monica) in a public park, and having received the praise, and words of continuous spinning in her charms, (Gerald) said to her: "Tell me frankly what you know here and what the public is ignorant of "You know, (Gerald)," said (Monica), "although your town is much bigger than ours, it has many contradictions He said to her: I know this well and what is new in this, she said to him: This country is run by a group of snakes, which have the ability to color and hide more than a thousand times during one second and said to him: Do you know Mr. / (Smith)? He said to her: The Minister of Housing and Urban Communities, of course I know him, is a successful businessman and the body's curiosity and often grabs the lights in every place where he appears; she said to him that he is a womanizer He said to her: I have heard that he has multiple relationships, she said to him: But do you know that he has illegitimate children dozens? So that most of them do not know and the rest refuses to recognize them, Do you know that he had a relationship with the famous artist (Jennifer Ellison), media personality (Clara Thomas) and the university professor (Margaret Stanley), who now has a relationship with model (Anna Charles) And she is chasing him to recognize his daughter (Sarah) as he evades her as many evades before, do you see how terrible ages in your capital (Salka)? Is the product of the sale of government land by bribes in the pockets of (Smith), even the drugs imported from (Colombia) and the large Cuban cigars are imported through the facilities of Mr. (Smith). I really wonder when I sit down to watch one of your channels in front of the TV of (Oraska), which appears in front of our screen other than (Oraska), which we know well and look for, I feel that you make your citizens use Marijuana via television through the news they broadcast on them, the progress and prosperity that they talk about is in the imagination of your ministers only, but the street is running away behind a group of corrupt Do you know that medical drugs broadcast through your channels are prohibited in all respectable European countries? It seems that your work (Gerald) with foreign women has forgotten the reality of your country, (Gerald) said to her: I know that our country is full of negatives, as you say, but like any citizen in this country, he is looking for what provides him with a living and a decent life. (Monica) replied: Is the living a product of hanging around with a stranger? (Gerald): I used to go along with many women and spent many nights in watchfulness, but believe me since I knew you I can no longer see rather than you, you have a special charisma, and you have something different than what I knew before (Monica) replied: you used to live easy (Gerald) you did not like work or struggle. Tell me: What makes you different so much from Mr. (Smith)? (Gerald): Thanks to the Lord, I have no illegitimate children so far. I have not had any connections with famous artists. I also do not smoke the big Cuban cigars. All I do is get information from a foreigner for my politicians. "No one deserves to work for it," (Monica) said. "You are fighting for a system of corruption; you are blowing in a broken girder or carrying it over your head during the walk. He said to her, "I work to eat and live only. There is no one who can change the universe alone." We all are corrupt, do not exclude anyone and she said to him: If I asked you to change this universe for me do you hesitate for a moment? He said to her: I'm ready to do anything for you, it has changed a lot since I knew you, I go to sleep at 11 pm and think about leaving my job now and searching for another job may be directed to the work of the press or media like you, she said to him: Is here in (Oraska)? He said to her: Or where? She said to him: So you are going to cover the rotten food with colored butterflies instead of the flies that fly around it no matter what you do you cannot repair it or return it to its original state. You are all corrupt, do not exclude anyone from you and when she said so, they spent a few minutes laughing together and did not control themselves from the intensity of laughter.

4 Fashion model and her daughter

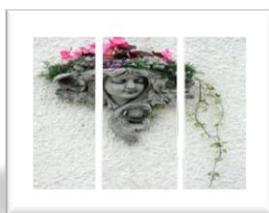

In the office of the minister, Mr. (Smith), we heard loud voices in his secretary's private room where a broke out has taken place between him and (Anna Charles) the model, who insisted on entering and interviewing his private office, but his secretary had wanted to prevent it from this and indeed Mr. Minister came out after this shouting and loud voice to find her in front of him sullen at the sight but was allowed to enter his office to resolve this dispute and get rid of that mess and then asked her what you want? And what made you come here? She said to him: that her daughter (Sarah), who 3 years old is asking her about her father, he replied to her: we have finished this issue for years and have given you the right compensation for you and your daughter and she said to him: How can you deprive a little girl from her father ?! And what is compensated for the loss of her father, like her fellow children in the class, he said to her: Do not try to come back with me again I will not admit her anyway She told him: she will cost a lawyer to file a case against him in court and that he will ask for his testimony and will ask for the work of analysis (DNA) and said to her: do what you want, but this will not be in your best interests and she said to him: Is this your last answer? He said to her: As you heard, she left his office at the top of anger and vowed to expose him everywhere but Mr. (Smith) was afraid of his delicate position, and he decided to get rid of it in a way that was beyond reproach. He assigned a group of his followers to those dirty jobs to disassemble the wheels of her car so that they lose their stability and balance at the acceleration, making them deviate from the road and collide with anything in their way and actually did what he wanted to hit the model in an accident on the road was taken to the hospital. She was in serious condition but under intensive medical care they were able to save her life after a blood transfusion and first aid needed, at this time, too, (Monica) was assigned to investigate the matter and go to a personal interview with (Anna) at the hospital. So she went and asked her about her health first, she replied that she was okay and asked if she accused anyone of what had happened to her. She replied no, but after telling her that she was aware of her relationship with the Minister of Housing If he is the real actor behind this incident, she replied that she doubted a large proportion at him (Monica) was pretty sure he was the actor but she wanted concrete evidence and the news was already spread like wildfire in the State of (Jeysland), where they suggested that a senior government official might be involved in the model (Anna Charles) incident, When the news arrived Mr. (Smith) was furious and asked his collaborators to access the source of this information in their neighboring European state, After weeks of interrogation, his aides knew that the source of the news was the (wild rabbit), which had visited (Anna) herself at the hospital to investigate the truth, Mr. (Smith) decided to get rid of the (wild rabbit) because he was worried about spying on his country and decided to liquidate her the next time she was a guest on (Oraska). (Smith's) agents were eagerly awaiting the arrival of the (wild rabbit) to (Oraska) for revenge because she was a real threat to their state. Indeed, as soon as she got out of the airport, (Smith's) men were waiting for her to chase her eagerly to find out what she wanted? What will you do this time? (Monica) picked up a taxi and asked her to take her to the hotel where she would be staying but noticed that there was a car she was chasing from the moment she left the airport inside it were men with black suits who appear in their body as intelligence men or secret agents and when she arrived at the hotel and entered her room was the concerns began to sneak into it,

So she decided to make sure the truth of the matter herself and came down a few hours after the hotel and began to walk in the streets nearby it, she noticed that there are those who follow her every step she goes, she decided to take a taxi back and found that the first car that was chasing her as soon as she got out of the airport was chasing her again and she was afraid and decided to go back to the hotel immediately and call (Gerald) to tell him what happened with her since her feet came to the territory of (Oraska) perhaps he knows what is going on or puts an explanation in the tracking of these people to her as he is a government agent and of course knows what is going on in his country by intelligence men or secret agents.

5 The (Wild Rabbit) running

After (Gerald) arrived at the hotel and went up to (Monica's) room, the meeting was hot between them and asked her if she was okay. She told him that coming to her quickly made her very happy, she told him what happened to her since her descent into the territory of (Oraska) and judging by his experience, he looked from the balcony to find the car that she described standing in front of the hotel and a number of men in black suits scattered everywhere. He knew that there was a problem between them and the intelligence men and they got together and took his black car of the type (BMW) and here began chasing them in the streets of the capital, the car followed them, one of them, who sent the news that (Monica) was in the company of one of them, they asked him to describe the man accompanying him and the number of the car they were traveling in. He described the shape of (Gerald), the model and the car number; they asked the occupants not to look away from them for a moment and to keep in touch with them, they quickly searched for the owner of the car and discovered that he was (Gerald) through the data recorded and stored in the database. The news reached Mr. (Smith) who asked them to get rid of (Monica) and the government agent that was with her, here they got closer and closer to (Gerald's) car and they started to open fire on them, but (Gerald) started to speed up his car and get off very quickly. He now understood that (Monica) was being liquidated and was in serious trouble with one of the important men of (Oraska), he started involving in side streets until he entered one of the local markets of the town, and the car launched behind them increase in speed and they increased in their madness they have fired on the tomato stalls that smeared streets of the market with sauce instead of blood, fruit stalls and melon beads were scattered here and there as well as birds were spread in the place as a result of the destruction of their cages and chaos reached its maximum from the madness of the speed of the two cars followed (Gerald) and Monica. The streets became stained with mayonnaise sauce from the amount of broken and destroyed eggs. As a result of this chaos, one of the cars hit one of the vegetable cages and flew several times in the air before they hit the ground and all of them were seriously injured and the others continued to fire bullets at (Gerald's) car, they did not care about what happened to the first car and (Gerald) exited the narrow market routes without being hurt he or (Monica), he derived along followed by the other car to a speed train barrier linking (Oraska) with a number of neighboring countries. The two closed tracks were closed as a result of two trains passing in opposite directions at the same time. The two trains were very close, but (Gerald) did not have another chance to escape from the bullet that he had left. He crossed the tracks just before the two trains crossed and the other car followed him, but it collided with the two speed locomotives, which lashed it into two parts. (Gerald) and (Monica) survived but the others followed them did not. Gerald and (Monica) breathed a sigh of relief. "God saved us for the second time. We are safe now," she said, just before she finished, a group of people on three motorbikes began to continue firing a barrage of bullets at them again. Luckily, they were very close to the (Oraska) border with (Jeysland) and (Gerald) went as fast as they followed them, he passed The (Oraska) and (Jeysland) line here is no longer aimed at bullets again because the motorcyclists knew very well that they would be liquidated immediately in case of cross-border fire, they stopped their pursuit across the border and here (Gerald) looked back ironically at them because they could no longer shoot more. (Gerald) and (Monica) now inside the (Jeysland) border and he told her: Thanks to (God) for your safety, (Monica). You are now within the boundaries of your own garden. Your father will not allow the rioters to sneak through the garden and harass the dog (Garbo).

6 Reveal 096 to (Daish) agents

After Mr. (Smith) knew what had happened to (Gerald) and (Monica) and the number of clients he had lost in the previous chase, he felt that he might raise doubts and noise around him. One of his associates advised him to get rid of them, but not now and indirectly, not through one of his men but with the hands of others. He sent the one who tells (Gerald) that Mr. (Smith) will not attempt to kill (Monica) again, but on condition that her legs do not cross the territory of (Oraska) again and the secrecy of the information she owns, and that it is related to one of the great intelligence men (Gerald), who they need and cannot do without him. He sent those who reassured him and gave his sermons, but (Gerald) was uncomfortable with this, but he said to himself: Let us try and perhaps the minister to be honest in his words this time and returned to (Oraska), but he no longer ceases his activity as before because he was thinking about (Monica) and their destiny and their future after that, in the meantime, he was sent by his aides to reveal (Gerald) completely and make him a burnt paper for some men and known to belong to the organization (Daish) who is active in the European countries and began to spread more lies about him that he hunted women veiled and do illegal relations with them for recruitment to one of the networks of intelligence from European countries, when this talk came to the prince of the extremist groups in the countries of Eastern Europe and with investigation of the history of (Gerald) in the companions of the beauties they decided with their prince to get rid of this licentious as he said and buried his sins with him. This operation should have two objectives: to create more panic on the territory of (Oraska) a threat to the rest of the countries around them and get rid of that infidel (Gerald) and his sins. And indeed they blew up the subway vehicle he was traveling in, they were with him in the same vehicle two of the long beard which looked to him all the time and raised his attention and questions, but they left the subway vehicle and took the next station. He went to the place where they were sitting, and he tied the body of the vehicle with a digital explosive device. The explosion lasted 6 minutes. Immediately, (Gerald) broke the glass that covered the warning button. The arm also stopped the subway and opened the doors manually. He shouted at the passengers that the vehicle was about to explode. People got out of the car as well as the other vehicles and walked alongside the tunnel, which was not far from the next station. He went to the metro driver who told him that vehicle No. 4 had the explosives and less than 5 minutes of detonation; he helped the driver to separate the vehicles in the front first, then the vehicles in the back of the train. The car bomb exploded in the tunnel and caused a great bang but without any passengers.

(Gerald), the driver and the emergency personnel succeeded in disconnecting the vehicles quickly and reached the next station through the tunnel, but the tunnel had completely destroyed the position of the vehicle that had exploded and disrupted the trains in both directions. The emergency personnel came from: the firefighters, ambulance and bomb experts to the scene, they fenced around the exploding tunnel, And the media men who moved to the scene and covered the event under the title: Terrorist act that causes the explosion of one of the tunnels of the main line of the metro in the capital (Salka) and was (Monica) following the news from the state (Jeysland), which was disturbed to hear the news of the explosion.

7 Parcel of Anthrax

(Gerald) did not return home after these dramatic events, but stayed at a major hotel for a short holiday after (Monica) contacted him to reassure him after this terrorist incident, which took place in the capital (Salka), but neither of them doubted for a moment that Mr. (Smith) had anything to do with it. The incident was a terrorist plotted by extremist groups. (Gerald) made the description of the two men who were traveling in the vehicle that had been blown up with explosive charges. The investigation was ongoing and the police were looking for them around the capital and surrounding cities where they are likely to flee or hide. On one occasion (Gerald) went to the hotel restaurant for dinner and left some of his belongings on the table and went to the toilet. There were some tourists who were accompanied by their pet dog, who roamed around and there, taking a seat (Gerald) from the inmates and snatching a slice of meat on the table and then the surprise took place, this dog has been gurgling in the ground and saliva from his mouth has been orphaned as a dead body cannot move as he fights the scum of death and his companions and the rest of the people around him. (Gerald) came from the toilet asking what happened and they told him that this happened with their pet dog immediately since he was kidnapped a slice of meat from the food on the table, he questioned the matter and asked them to inform the police and no one came close to this food and indeed the police came to investigate and discovered the existence of poison killer in (Gerald's) food, but who put this poison in food? How did they sneak into the restaurant? Those were the questions the police were looking for. It was very confusing and all the things are suspicious, but no one was able to get to the reality of the whole thing has become. (Gerald) was at the hotel until morning and decided to leave the next day and indeed, the purpose of his mission was to leave. One of them came from the room service with a closed parcel and said to him, "One of them has sent it today, Mr. (Gerald), and asked to hand it over to you, but (Gerald) was not reassured by the expulsion and decided to inform the police of his order to examine it first and unload the contents and already been called to the police and sent to the criminal investigation team, which found to contain the expulsion of deadly anthrax bacteria and that he was to get sick immediately after opening this suspicious package and said to him: thanks God for your safety, Mr. (Gerald), you survived the death of the investigator for the second time in less than 24 hours, one where this brave dog saved you and one for your good conduct and cooperation with the police and the CID but there is definitely someone who tries to get rid of you, Mr. (Gerald), or cause you troubles. Do you have enmities or discounts with anyone? Or do you directly accuse anyone of trying to kill you with a poison or an anthrax infection? (Gerald) responded with negation and began to think of Mr. (Smith's) lie about forgetting his command and (Monica) in case of alienation and that he still carries evil to them and tries to get rid of them, but without appearing in the picture directly and without being related to the subject soon Or remote. He said:

"The (Smith's) stray dogs is still yowl around him everywhere try to kill him at the earliest opportunity, but is (Monica) safe from danger outside the borders of their state (Oraska)? Or may the risk travel to cause her trouble there too, she must be told what is happening and warn at the same time.

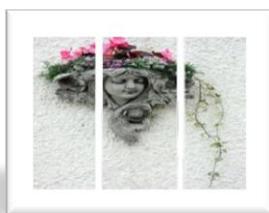

8 Blow up the black (BMW)

As he left the hotel, (Gerald) noticed the presence of a sniper in one of the tall buildings next to the hotel, pretending not to notice him at this high altitude, but he walked in a way that did not fall within the range of the shotgun, covertly lurched through the parked cars in the parking lot in front of the hotel until he reached his black (BMW), but as soon as he met the sniper's eyes at the top of the opposite building, he retreated from his car and went away, hiding behind a building watching the scene from afar, as was the sniper he knew (Gerald) had seen him. He remained in this situation for several minutes as well as sniper waiting for the opportunity to hit (Gerald) to get him dead and after less than 10 minutes exploded his black (BMW) in front of the hotel. The explosion left a barrage of fire that reached for a number of parked cars as well as thick fumes that blocked the sight of the sniper and (Gerald) took the opportunity to flee away and disappear from his sight, but what happened? He was accompanied by other man from (Smith) men, who was able to plant dynamite mine in (Gerald's) car shortly before he left the hotel and his companion was waiting on the roof, so that if he failed to capture (Gerald) the car explodes immediately after driving and launch in minutes, but what they arranged for him did not succeed and (Gerald) managed to escape. The fire engines and ambulances reached the scene of the explosion to extinguish the fire that got a number of cars and then the sniper rushed to avoid being arrested after combing the area and (Gerald) breathed a sigh of relief for his surviving for the fourth time in 24 hours. He cursed (Smith) and his men and his insistence to get rid of him and lisped saying: Son of a bitch has planted me the mines of death everywhere, as I got rid of one until I received the other on my way and vowed to take the initiative to attack the next time and fight beside (Monica) to the end but must be assisted by one of them so that he can learn the threads of the subject and know what is going on around him. He called one of his best friends (Rafael) the client (Fox) and told him with what happened with him quickly and asked him to come to help him and agreed on the time and place where they will meet, on time (Rafael) arrived with his legendary car (Bugatti Veyron) and opened the door of the car to his friend (Gerald) and said to him: enter the car, (Casanova), I was sure that you will be eliminated because of one of these women and that your many relationships will bring you the scourge, everyone talks about that knight who flew with his girlfriend outside the borders of the country and said to him (Gerald): How did you know all this? He replied: Your news is up to me at the moment, they have recruited an army for you, O (Gerald), just get in and I will tell you everything along the way, but thank God for your safety and your survival so far, then he drove his car with crazy speed on the road is almost like a flash of lightning.

9 Telepathy Project

As (Rafael), the agent (Fox) drove his car, he said to (Gerald), the agent (096): Of course you wonder about all that is happening with you and these endless attempts to kill you. (Smith) has set aside 3 million euros for your liquidation, and your story with the (Wild Rabbit) is coveted by every adventurer and lover to win the big cake and the biggest reward among the mercenary clients for the grand honor, you are Valentino Valentine's Day (Gerald) And I will make you look at the number on the computer screen with your own eyes and already (Rafael) escorted his friend to a secret place and lights the house lights and press the button to turn on the laptop, and entered the site of the secret agents and make (Gerald) watching the amount of zeros many himself, (Gerald) marveled of the magnitude of the amount and said to his friend (Rafael): Do you have something you can help me? (Rafael) replied: "I can sneak through this site to find out more about what (Smith) is hiding with his company," he said. After several attempts at hacking the main server and hacking into the database, they accessed to very serious task files according to, the participation of Mr. (Smith), the Minister of Housing, with the Minister of Information, Mr. (Roland) in a secret project through which they spy on young people from high schools and universities via the state's main satellite and steal their ideas under the symbolic name is:

(telepathy project) But how do they benefit from the ideas of students? Geniality is needed is everywhere and useful in every field, and these are the young people of today and the future of tomorrow. Why should not they take advantage of the ideas of these students in their own projects or submit them to the Council of Ministers under their own names and become a monopoly on them?! So they have stolen everything before, so why not steal the ideas of tomorrow?! The two friends were surprised by the strange nature of this project and the greed of these two ministers, they also revealed spy files by the government in other parts of the Internet surveillance, as well as networks of telecommunications and others,

(Gerald) said to his friend: It appears that to live in (Oraska) must be a star in reality television, I'm (Gerald Kardashian) and you (Raphael Kardashian), everyone in this country should get used to standing in front of the camera 24 hours or being connected to the radio, this is a situation where you cannot live or adapt to it. (Raphael) said to him: What are you going to do now? (Gerald) said to him: I will travel to (Monica) I need it now and it likewise needs me and very anxious and tense for me,

(Rafael) said to him: I will hold a deal with you now, (Gerald) said to him: What is it? He answered him: I will call you to Monica for free in return for the reward for your arrest. He said to him: What will you do? I will call

Mr. (Smith) and tell him that you are in my possession and that I will hand you over to him in exchange for the transfer of the 3 million euros on my own account and to drive my (Bugatti) at lightning speed even outside the borders of (Oraska), I get you to (Jeysland), I leave you there with your sweetheart and I travel to another place where I spend the reward of handing my old friend to his sweetheart instead of the thief to live a stable life away from explosions and mines, (Gerald) said to him: And what guarantees to (Smith) the truth of your words? "I will tell him some of what happened to you in the previous days and tell him: You can reach my place at any time if I'm not honest," replied (Rafael). Indeed, (Rafael) contacted Mr. (Smith) and agreed on the date and place of delivery (Gerald) and flew with his friend at lightning speed to deliver him to his lover after receiving the amount of 3 million euros allocated for his arrest, the two ensured some after the end of the (Oraska's) border and the entry into the territory of the State of (Jeysland).

10 Your country is spying on you

Indeed, (Rafael) reached (Gerald) his sweetheart (Monica) and when they met, they hugged each other in a very emotional romantic scene. Then (Rafael) said to her: Are you the one who able to kidnap (Gerald's) heart and take him away from the borders of (Oraska)?

(Gerald) replied: this is my friend (Rafael) the client (Fox), one of my oldest and best friends. He agreed with me to come here and collect the reward for me. I will explain everything to you later, and here the two friends hugged each other and (Rafael) said to his friend: If you need to my help I will come to you if you were in the last point in the world and asked if he had enough money,

(Gerald) said to him: that he has enough for many months and said good bye to his friend (Rafael). He said to (Monica): "Give yourselves a good hand and do not let anyone know where you are from (Oraska) and the friend is gone," and then (Gerald) told (Monica) everything that happened to him, she surprised and said to him: All this happened with you during the period of absence, this is something that cannot keep silent on it, he said to her:

What will we do then? "We will continue to be threatened by this situation if we remain alone. The best way to defense is the attack," she said, we will launch a fierce onslaught from here. All the privacy files in your country (Oraska) will open. Perhaps the street will move with us or in our position, and demands the dismissal of these two ministers to reduce of their powers and influence, and make sure they had many enemies, we weren't or the model their first victim. Dozens of them have already been hurt by them. Gather their enemies against them. They collect mercenaries from everywhere for 3 million euros, (Monica) launched a fierce campaign through her media colleagues in the state of (Jeysland) to open the privacy file in the state of (Oraska). One of them appeared on the screen of one of the satellite channels in (Jeysland) and said: your country is spying on you; you are a ubiquitous observer in (Oraska). Do not think you surf the Internet easily or write as you like on the social networking pages. Internet networks are completely monitored, they know everything you write, and they also know your site perfectly, all your wired and wireless calls are listened by them well, they account your breath and how many times you go to the toilet, such ferocious campaigns have been for weeks, reviewing all the flaws in the privacy files. Indeed, several political activists in (Oraska) have uncovered new secrets about snatching, someone discovered that there are very thin slices in modern smart TVs and very small cameras watching you and recording all your movements while you sit to watch your favorite movies or programs in front of the screen, he disassembled one of these televisions and showed the public spy slides and small cameras, all this was enough to cause a wave of anger in the street inside (Oraska), but the anger was sweeping the street when (Monica) revealed the details of (secret telepathy project), and the desire of these two ministers to seize the ideas of geniuses and to operate them on their own account and parents move for fear about their children chanting: What will benefit our children in the future if their lives and their destinies in the hands of a group of thieves? "I now doubt the school and I do not trust its director, not even the officials or the minister of education, and my eldest son, how does he respect or trust his university professor?" How does it take a role model anymore? Our leaders have become distorted and who is in charge of us? A group of thieves and bandits, another said: Those who want to tamper with the future of our children should be interrogated, as well as those who spy on us day and night and the waves of anger escalate. So no high school students or universities are satisfied with the suppression of freedom of expression through social media platforms, neither they nor their parents are confident of the current government's ability to secure a future for them or a decent life. It is in the interest of a number of fraudsters at the expense and dignity of an entire generation. Everyone is indignant at this situation and dissatisfied with it.

11 Demonstrations sweeping the street

The demonstrations began to sweep the street peacefully, first in the form of gatherings of students carrying banners, which included several slogans, including: free the Internet - Stop "secret telepathy project" - Ensure the freedom of expression - not to snoop on public calls. These students left the perimeter of the campus and lined up in front of the local communications authority. No one was exposed to them at first, but as their numbers began to rise from large cities, they moved towards the capital (Salka), (Smith) and (Roland) tried to suppress them by force through a campaign of arrests but that has made anger growing in the street more and more, the parents of detained students have come to demand the release of their children and demand the dismissal of the government in full and the formation of a new reliable government, the Prime Minister was surprised by what was happening on the street because he knew that the Internet was already monitored and the communications network. The biggest surprise was the leak of the "secret telepathy project" because he had not been aware of it before and this project can discredit them all over the street. You live and struggle today to give your children a better future, let alone a future without a real success or ambition in which they will strive for a better tomorrow. The demands have escalated further and called on the masses to judge the ministers (Roland) and (Smith) as well as the Minister of Education if he has been implicated with them and has filed numerous lawsuits demanding the Minister of Communications to pay imaginary compensation as a result of spying on communications and Internet monitoring, and compensation amounted to huge numbers and the number of cases very much, if this minister remained 100 years in office will not pay one by ten total compensation amounts. The government tried to absorb the anger of the people through several statements received via the state television network in order to calm down, but the anger increased more and more after the discovery of the existence of segments of spy and micro surveillance cameras in the modern smart TVs, the citizens broke a number of these televisions in the public fields and broke their screens and grabbed the slices of espionage and raised banners reading: the plague particle inside my house - Plague hits the homes of our nation all, The mobs were stormed, destroying mobile phone towers, breaking into smartphones' shops and destroying the goods inside them. Each one extracted a spy chip so that no one remained on the territory of (Oraska), not holding one or more spy slices in his hand, they broke into the building of the General Authority for Communications and some of the saboteurs cut Internet cables and telephone lines, the street remained the same in (Oraska) for several days until the president intervened to calm the situation and respond to the demands of the people. He issued a statement announcing the dismissal of the current government and the formation of a new government as well as a fact-finding committee to investigate violations of espionage as well as the "secret telepathy project" and promised to hold the perpetrators accountable and to prosecute those involved. Several statements were made: Freedom (for Oraska) - no one will spy on you today - your children are the hope of tomorrow, no one will deprive them of freedom or life - your Secretariat is the source of your ambition, but the thieves have no place among us, and the anger of the street ended only when broadcasting the facts of the arrest of some ministers and referred them to disciplinary and urgent trials and waited for all what will result from the trials of these corrupt.

12 Urgent disciplinary trials

Some ministers and officials involved in espionage operations against citizens have been arrested and other corruption files have appeared with them condemning them and condemning other public figures. First we start with Mr. (Smith). Once he is arrested, the door of hell to death had been open from the many misdeeds and scandals of this man. He has been charged with harassment and other sexual scandals, proving cases and others on commissions and bribes received to the appropriation and sale of state land without right, As well as the joint file on the issue of (secret telepathy project) with Mr. (Roland), which was found guilty with the involvement of the Minister of Education, which facilitated the selection of students geniuses and the supernatural. This issue was the source of anger of all sects of the people because it deprives their children of the primacy and nobility and takes the ideas, minds and dreams of promising young people to a group of people who care only to fill their coffers with more money at the expense of other promising. Mr. (Smith) was indicted on numerous harassment cases, especially after the testimony of famous female artists, community women, and businesswomen. He was convicted in bribes' and commissions' issues that lengthened the sentence he would spend behind bars and increased for another years as a result of his conviction in the (secret telepathy project) until the total number of years he will spend in prison 25 years, Mr. (Roland) was sentenced to 10 years as a result of the use of the main satellite of the State for special purposes of espionage within the territory of (Oraska) and infringement of the laws on privacy, human rights and damage to others, and the Minister of Education was sentenced to 5 years as a result of his involvement in the (secret telepathy project) and facilitating the process of selecting and harming outstanding students and their future, The Minister of Communications was also waiting for a series of judgments as a result of monitoring telephone lines and the Internet and compensation issues and sentenced him to 15 years and like them to the Prime Minister for his knowledge and cover up such espionage operations carried out by his government, In addition, some officials responsible for some imported and exported goods have been convicted of introducing smart devices containing spy chips and micro-surveillance cameras to infringe on privacy and damage to others, the street welcomed all these urgent trials and sentences, but demanded the enactment of new laws and legislation that respect privacy and human rights as well as freedom of the press and define the powers and competencies of the government, these include:

1. Every citizen has the right to live a dignified life that respects his privacy and does not allow any person or entity to infringe on his privacy or interfere with his life in any way or in any form whatsoever.

2. Every citizen shall have the right to express his opinion in the visual, audiovisual or readable means, so long as he does not harm others or causes him to insult or to deliberately diminish him through his speech or to carry out offensive or insulting remarks.

3. The full freedom of the press and the freedom of the Internet must be guaranteed and not restricted or controlled except in cases of defamation, abuse, moral or sexual scandals.

4. Ensure that wire or wireless communications are not monitored and no person or entity is allowed to eavesdrop or record calls except after prior legal authorization in cases of emergency or terrorist or criminal suspicion.

5. Prohibit and not sell any modern smart devices with links or spy segments that support eavesdropping or snooping in any form and monitoring and testing these devices before they enter the market.

6. Organizing the laws related to the work or installing surveillance cameras and extracting a special permit to the need to have such cameras according to the nature of the work or place.

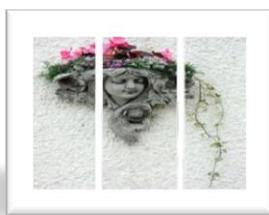

7. Equality among all students in the labor market Preference shall be given only to the cumulative number of higher schools or universities, and to ensure the preservation of intellectual property rights and patents.

8. Accountability of officials suspected of involvement in cases of bribes or commissions and brings them to trial and the seizure of their property until the provision of benefits to profit or to obtain these properties.

9. Follow-up of the House of Representatives for all future government plans and projects and ensures their implementation in the interest of the public.

10. The establishment of fair elections that ensure the formation of the highest percentage of votes for the government while ensuring the integrity of these elections and free of all acts of fraud.

And other general laws that the spy files have opened the door to legislate and work to ensure that there are no violations later and to ensure the freedom and privacy of the citizen and not to prejudice the basic rights in any way, as well as the future of the next generation capable of challenging and achieve its ambitions.

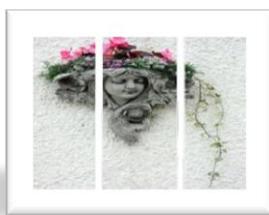

13 The last flight

(Gerald) was following closely what was going on in (Oraska) with (Monica) from the territory of (Jeysland). They were very pleased with the developments there, getting rid of the ghost of (Smith) and (Roland), accountability corrupt officials and the people uprisings to get rid of spying and watching everything in (Oraska) as well as the gains they have made and the new laws they sought to legislate but at the same time was very worried perhaps (Smith) and (Roland) will try in retaliation for those who expose them and make them lose everything. "Maybe Mr. Smith is locked behind bars now, but he has a lot of agents abroad and through whom he can do anything, he might be like the wounded lion who will be shedding his teeth through them," said (Gerald) to (Monica). We have to move quickly from (Jeysland) and go so far that no one can reach us anymore. "Where should we go?" She said. "Let's go to (Susannah), a quiet island in the Pacific, which does not allow the extradition of political refugees hundreds of kilometers away," he said, we stay there for some time, even if we like it, why do not we stay there for many years, and where we can see the beautiful scenery and the temperate atmosphere away from the noise and panic

(Oraska) and congestion (Jeysland), (Monica) told him: she is ready to go with him to any place in the world, but he told her: that they should take care in all their movements until they left (Jeysland) and said to him: What shall we do? He said to her: We will record on our flight to a place and at a different time and leave in another; maybe some of your friends helped us in this task, She said to him: why that? He replied: "We do not trust any of our known movements for (Smith's) customers, who can monitor us and follow us anywhere, and her friends already help (Monica) and (Gerald) on the implementation of this scheme, who had told them about the possibility of blowing up aircraft with a fake date and already happened what he expected, two of the suicide bombers who jumped off the plane after taking off a quarter of an hour and the pilot informed about the incident, the control center, who told him about the possibility of containing the aircraft explosives and should know the location and the time that will detonate these explosives, the crew tried to find the location of the explosives and one of them found it in the toilet. It was connected to the body of the plane with iron chains and the remaining time was 10 minutes. The pilot told the control center where the explosives were and how long they had to detonate. First they asked him if the crew could remove them from the fuselage, he told them that it was impossible and they asked him again: If he could land safely before that time, he replied: he could not land safely anywhere 10 minutes before. They ordered him to leave the fuselage, his crew and all the passengers and jump through the parachute. The captain of the plane ordered his crew to calm the passengers and organize them and explain to them quickly how to wear parachute and use after jumping from the plane and already in a few minutes the pilot and crew and passengers succeeded to jump using parachutes and survive and left the body of the plane, which exploded minutes later and scattered parts and debris burning over the great sea, in the meantime, (Gerald) and (Monica) were on the other plane. They had a transit at an airport and listened to the news bulletin. The news of the crash of the (Jeysland) plane was broadcast by two suicide bombers, thanking God for their last survival, they was very pleased with the news of the survival of the crew and passengers and (Monica) was astonished of the accuracy and expectation of (Gerald) as if keeping the clients of his country by heart and said to him: she was believing her intuition a lot but since the moment his intuition has become as believing in herself and rest assured and trust that death will not overcome them together.

14 Reaching to (Susannah)

(Gerald) and (Monica) completed their journey until they reached the remote Pacific island of (Susannah). The first thing to stop was the picturesque nature of the island and the hospitality and generosity of its villagers; they have booked a suite in a hotel and are ready for their grand wedding. The hotel has prepared a welcoming party where it was set up directly on the beach. (Gerald) wore his black suit and his elegant neckline. (Monica) wore her beautiful long white dress, the pastor asked (Gerald) first: Would you accept (Monica) in front of the Lord as your bride? He replied: Of course, he came back and asked (Monica): Do you accept (Gerald) in front of the Lord your husband? She replied: Certainly the pastor prayed a short prayer and said to (Gerald): You can now kiss your bride, then (Gerald) kissed her, and he had bought her a ring studded with diamonds very beautiful then the pastor said in front of the attendees: Now you announced husband and wife, God bless you and save your life and your livelihood of boys and girls, and the islanders rejoiced from the indigenous villagers and the Indians, who prepared a mixture of pineapple, coconut and other fruits for them. They put around (Gerald) a plexus of branches and tree's leaves as well as (Monica), and then asked him to ride a horse with his bride to celebrate. The horse was also decorated with flowers and beautiful roses, (Gerald) toured with his bride some parts of the island. The Indians then performed some dances and shows of the island's indigenous people. Some of the girls dressed in the original dress of the Islanders asked (Monica) to dance with them, she did a little, then they set fire to the barbecue party, where they roasted some fish, which they hunted from the ocean and some wild animals, and presented the dinner table to the groom and bride to eat. (Gerald) and (Monica) ate the food which they had been given which was added to some of the sauces that have not been handled before and ended the ceremony to offer everyone congratulations to (Gerald) and (Monica) and delivered them to the hotel through a beautiful car decorated with horse-drawn like Cinderella's wagon, it was written in the original language as well as in English. They were already married and when they reached the door of the hotel the attendants left the bride and groom and walked away and (Gerald) took the key of their private suite and carried his bride to the door of their room to spend the happiest night of their lives that could forget them all the risks and events they had experienced in (Oraska) or (Jeysland) to start together a new page and a new life away from the threats of customers or who employed them, away from spying, surveillance and de facto imposition of force and the use of influence and control to oppress anyone standing in the faces of their owners or trying to stop them or deter them, even in a peaceful way, not like the methods of killing or liquidation that they follow, to say "Good Bye" to (Gerald) & (Monica) the two agents that move the conscience of their nation and freedom from the snoop and darkness of thought and the brutality of power and deter death in many times to go and live together the quiet life they deserve.
